(e) Yes. A spot enquiry was conducted and necessary orders were passed by the Tahsildar.

(f) On receipt of the application in the Tahsil office, the Revenue Inspector concerned was directed to effect the mutation as per rules. No delay has been observed.

Sri J. P. SARWESH.—In reply to (e) you have stated that spot enquiry was conducted and necessary orders were passed by the Tahsildar. I would like to know what are the orders?

Sri H. V. KOUJALGI.—Sir, I do not have the copy of the letter the hon'ble Member has submitted to the Tahsildar. But from the records, I can say, that Sri Ashappa of Bannur could not get the loan because his name was not on the record of rights. Therefore, mutation entries had to be made and after that was done orders were issued.

Sri J. P. SARWESH.—I have myself seen the file. The patwari is demanding about 200 rupees which Mr. Ashappa is not able to give and the mutation entry has been done in such a manner which is not at all beneficial to the applicant. How can the loan be sanctioned when there is no name on the record of rights, Sir ?

Sri H. V. KOUJALGI.—Sir, on the strength of the application presented by the hon'ble Member, an spot enquiry was conducted and mutation was done according to law and necessary orders were passed by the Tahsildar.
